of the tickets cast in the second primary in district 1 of this county, making it an even vote between Smith and McCoy, though Smith had already been regarded as the nominee.

A recount has been asked for in the race for county treasurer, only thirty-two votes having been accredited to the supposed nominee for treasurer over his opponent, Carnal, an ex-Confederate soldier, had been regarded as the winner in this race, but Sam Lewis, the blind candidate, who led in the first primary, questioned the correctness of the count, and has asked for another canvass of the returns, which has been set for Saturday.

JUMPS BEFORE TRAIN.

LUKA, Miss., Sept. 3. (Sp.)—Charlotte Jones, a young negro woman, committed suicide here Sunday evening, by throwing herself in front of the westbound passenger train. She lived a few minutes after being hit by the train. There was a note pinned to her dress saying she was tired of living.

WIDENER LANDS FIRST BALE OF 1919 COTTON

FORREST CITY, Ark., Sept. 3.—Widener, the gate city of the St. Francis valley, has hopped off in front with the first bale of the season for St. Francis county, when John W. Hall, well known merchant-farmer at that point, drove up to the Widener gin with a bale just ahead of three other farmers of Griggs township, all of whom had been anxious to carry off first bale honors.

All four bales were quickly run through the stands by Manager I. R. Hodges, of the Widener gin company, who reports that he is two weeks behind last season in ginning the first bale. It is expected that within the next two weeks the movement of the crop will become general throughout this section of the state.

THINGS LINE UP FOR CHEAP RATIONS

Bry's Supply of Army Canned Goods Goes at Record Speed.

The injunction to come early and avoid the rush apparently attracted the attention of Memphians who wished to avail themselves of the opportunity of purchasing surplus army food being sold at cost by the Bry-Block Mercantile company. Two carloads of canned corn, peas and stringless beans made up the bulk of the foodstuffs placed on sale at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning. The sale price was 10 cents per can or $2.40 per case.

Not only did Memphis housewives go early, but they stayed late and carried away case after case of Uncle Sam's food. Automobiles were numerous and when many of them left the scene of the sale at Front street and Jefferson avenue, they were piled high with cases of food to be fed to Friend Husband and the little ones during the bleak winter days.

The auto owners, although in the majority, were not in every case the largest purchasers. Negro boys, draymen, street cars, baskets, the broad backs of male members of the family as well as the delicate arms of the members of the more deadly sex all played their part in carrying away the precious cans that were sold at from $3 to 50 per cent more than the ordinary retail price.

Street cars rounding the corner of Front street and Jefferson avenue were forced to disgorge their schedules and conductors and motormen were pressed into service while the ladies loaded the front and rear ends of the cars with cases.

Many of the customers bought in broken lots, filling small baskets with an assortment of beans, corn and peas. The demand was steady and throughout the morning hours a waiting line constantly moved forward being added to as fast as those ahead had been waited on and started homeward.

The demand for the canned goods was equally as strong as for the bacon, disposed of a few days ago, and the stock depleted almost as rapidly.

M'CARTY GANGED IN DE SOTO PARK

Police Charge Two With Crime Other Arrests Expected Speedily.

Two arrests were made Wednesday by Officers Saint and Appling, following the brutal assault of I. M. McCarty by a number of men in De Soto park Tuesday afternoon. McCarty was beaten with sticks and stones and was received at the Marine hospital, near the park, in an unconscious condition. John Logsdon, proprietor of a pool room at 322 Delaware street, was arrested and a charge of assault and battery placed against him on the docket Tuesday night. James Carter, 15, 741 Arkansas street, was arrested and turned over to the juvenile court on a similar charge.

According to the police, McCarty and a young lady had gone to the park to take a few kodak pictures when a small boy made some remark which, McCarty answered. McCarty stated that a few minutes later a gang of about a dozen men returned and he was beaten and knocked unconscious.

More arrests are expected by the police Wednesday.

FORREST CITY WINS.

FORREST CITY, Ark., Sept. 3. (Sp.)—The pitchers battle in the opener of the championship series between Fields of Earle and Thompson of Forrest City, at Wenne, yesterday afternoon, went to the latter when Earle's defense was cracked by that grand old veteran, "Fat" Folbre, first up in the seventh, who smashed one over the center fielder's head for two bases. Thereafter "the stuff was off" and Forrest City bats kept up the bombardment until at the conclusion of the eighth, a total of seven mariners had been checked up and the game clinched for Earle.

By innings: 0 0 0 0 0 0 1—2, 5; Earle; 0 0 0 0 0 4 3—7, 3; Forrest City; 0 0 0 0 0 4 3—7, 3; Fields and Mettler; Thompson and Nail.

Activities Among Memphis Negroes

BY REV. T. O. FULLER.

We sincerely hope for a cleaner, bigger and better Memphis. Our home is here, our work is here and our interests are centered here. Every citizen, every gambler, every loafer and every moral slacker is an enemy to the highest development of our city. Good citizens should wage a common battle against the evils that threaten our very existence. Forward, march ye legions of law and order.

The Marine Hospital circle put in a nice Victoria machine and a 15-horse electric fan for the soldiers at the institution in addition to screening the wards. Friends were kind enough to aid the council of defense.

The public schools open for enrollment Monday. School is the prospect is bright for a very successful school year. Many of the teachers spent their vacations out of the city.

The special night class for young ministers meets at Howe every Tuesday and Thursday nights. Revs. J. A. J. Cochran and William B. Walker are rendering valuable assistance.

The tickets used by the delegates to the National Baptist convention are good for returning until Sept. 30. The special train over the Illinois Central railway which leaves Memphis for Newark, N. J., Monday night, Sept. 8, at 7:50 o'clock, will be well-filled.

The Howe quartet will entertain a number of friends with a select jubilee program at the Howe chapel Wednesday night. "All interested persons are invited to be present," said Carl Hughes, the manager.

Among the important matters to be considered at the Newark Baptist convention is the establishment of a Theological seminary, Nashville has a limited time to raise $50,000. Failing to do so that the question of location will be reopened.

The general education board of New York has just made another substantial donation to negro education in the South. Ignorance is a menace and a curse. Remove it.

Among the older citizens engaged in business J. B. Willis is a conspicuous example. Quiet and unassuming, Willis succeeds in making and holding friends. As a real estate man he has done a large business. He handles the funds of one of the strongest legions and is also a director in the solvent Savings bank. It should not be forgotten that Willis is connected with the firm of Barnett & Lewis.

The unfortunate tragedy which ended the career of J. H. McDunkin removed a man who had a large circle of friends. The battle between law and lawlessness is a fierce one.

The Rev. B. J. Perkins is the corresponding secretary of the church extension board of the National Baptist convention, which convenes at Newark, N. J., on the 10th inst. The Rev. H. B. Roberts is chairman. Among the other officers who live in Memphis are Dean W. W. Broughton, secretary of the women's convention; T. O. Fuller, assistant secretary of the general convention; Dr. Sutton E. Griggs, chairman of the educational board, and Rev. W. L. Petty, recording secretary of the educational board.

When His Master Goes To School

Now as the boys come tumbling back from the camp or from the country or from the ball field, brown and sturdy after the long summer holiday, with the scattered remnants of a once summer wardrobe, they must be outfitted a-new for the school times just ahead.

Mothers have been away, too. Styles have changed. Sonny has grown. Shopping seems to present a perplexing problem just at this season.

But we have been busy all summer. We have been shopping and placing orders all the while, as fastidiously as the most particular mother. For our pride is equal to her own in having her boy well dressed, and our prudence is equal to her own in doing it at a moderate expenditure. Please look these items over and see how we have prepared to furnish your children's wardrobe, and take advantage of the opportunity offered here to shop easily and satisfactorily.
